

Sample questions for SEAC review of OPA Assessment Project

1. What process for review of the OPA assessment process is being implemented with educators and administrators?
2. Has the board developed a pre-referral process that includes informal assessment and interventions to struggling students?
3. If students continue to struggle after the pre-referral process, what is the process for referral for professional assessments?
4. Is the pre-referral and referral process made clear to parents?
5. How many students from grades K to 4 are still waiting for professional assessments?
6. Are professional assessment reports written in a way that is clear to educators and gives useful recommendations for classroom interventions?
7. Are professional assessment reports written in a way that is understandable to parents and gives them useful information?